EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

"We want that education by which character is formed, strength of mind is increased, the intellect is expanded, and by which one can stand on one's own feet".

-Swami Vevekananda

I am delighted to present you the new edition of Naipunyam 2023, enumerating the programmes which were organized during the first term of this academic year. We could conduct all these events in an impeccable way only with the heart felt cooperation and support of all our stake holders. I acknowledge and appreciate all the efforts and keen interest taken by our teachers and students. I also thank all parents/guardians for their priceless encouragement you have extended to us so far during the First Term.

I am extremely happy to note that all of our students of classes X and XII have achieved greater success in their Board Examinations 2022-23 in flying colours. It am also quite sure that the present batch of classes X & XII is also equally or even more capable to uphold the dignity of our school.

Let us continue our journey with more enthusiasm and hope. I wish everyone a Very Happy Onam in advance.

Fr. VARGHESE PALATTY

Executive Director

EDITOR'S DESK

The activities which are organised play a vital role in the personality development of a child. They help in the social, emotional, and physical development of children and teach them important life skills such as team-work, communication, and leadership. Participating in co-curricular activities also helps in improving a child's self-confidence and decision-making abilities. It helps them discover their interests and passions, leading to the development of a well-rounded individual. Our 'Naipunnyam-2023' contains a brief description of all the activities which were held in our school since the reopening. We are so grateful to every one for their unconditional support and guidance which have extended so far.

TEACHERS' TRAINING PROGRAMME

Teachers' professional training and professional development are necessary ingredients to support innovative and beneficial teaching. Teachers play a unique role in students' academic, personal and social development. They help to shape the future of students by dedicating their own time and effort to ensure that each student reaches their full potential.

We are so excited to say that a Teachers' Training programme was organised at Niveditha Centre for Religious Formation & Fellowship, Chunangamveli, Aluva, on 29th, & 30th of May 2023. The work shop was officially inaugurated by Emeritus Auxiliary Bishop of Ernakulam-Angamaly, Mar Thomas Chakkiath. The sessions were led by Dr. Vincent Kundukulam, Dr. Shalini Jose, Prof. Veena Jayakumar, Fr. Sabu Kumbukkal and Fr. Jo Paul. The teachers, who attended the training sessions, were immensely benefitted. Our special thanks to Fr. Jose Mandanath, the Director of Niveditha Centre for Religious Formation & Fellowship, Chunangamveli, Aluva, for having extended all the needed support and cooperation.
